

Love in the Time of COVID

Zoom Workshop: 6 - 1.5-hour sessions, 10 participants maximum, with Certified Sexual Health Educators, John Woods & Dee Stacey.

When: Alternate Wednesdays, Beginning Sept 16th, 2020

Time: 7:30pm-9pm PST

Cost: $20 x 6 = $120.00 CAD

Register: admin@squarepegsociety.ca

(specify LOVE in subject line)

This program is for adults, aged 20-35, who are interested learning about and forming mutually enjoyable, meaningful, healthy, and safe, intimate and sexual relationships.

This workshop will explore how individuals find love online through dating apps, and, in-person, through meet-ups and other activities. In part, these sessions will be an extension of the ideas that we were unable to complete, in our Modern Love series, as it was interrupted by COVID. Most importantly, we will look at how people express love and appreciation, and the implications of COVID on the ability of people to meet and form happy & healthy relationships. As well, in alternate weeks we will look at relationships and sex in film, and together, participants will discuss what works and what doesn't, what is fantasy, and what love and romance looks like for real people in real life.

