

A Zoom Meeting

Monday, December 14, 2020, 10:30am

Square Peg Society is inviting you to a Zoom meeting.

If you cannot attend, we will, later, post a video at: www.squarepegsociety.ca

Financial Literacy

Key to independent living is an understanding of day-to-day financial transactions. Our speaker, Kylie Pettifer, is an “Each One Teach One” trainer, a VanCity program aimed at increasing the financial literacy of Canadians.

This is the first of three meetings that we will host in 2020-21 on Financial Literacy. The topic for this meeting is:

Credit Cards Use & Security and Credit History

CREDIT CARDS AND PREPAID CARDS

- Advantages and disadvantages of credit cards and prepaid cards
- The real cost of using credit and prepaid cards

BUILDING A HEALTHY CREDIT HISTORY

- Why your credit history matters & how to build a good credit score
- What to do if you need to get out of financial trouble

Kylie Pettifer is a Specialist in Community Partnerships and Engagement, Community Investment, with Vancity Credit Union.
