Employment: Inclusive Employment Programs

PosAbilities Employment Service

Tammy McEvoy, & Terrance Mansaray, Employment Specialists

Tammy & Terrance will describe how they advocate for & support individuals with “disversabilities” in finding employment. This includes a complete process of personal discovery, finding employment, job coaching and job maintenance. They help people in transitioning to new positions, in building independence in the workplace, and they maintain an on-going connection with their clients to help them work through challenges that may arise along the way.

Back In Motion Rehab Inc.

Alissa Villanueva, Warehousing Program, Job Coach/Program Coordinator

Alissa will speak about Back in Motion’s six week “Skills for Life & Work Program” designed to help individuals with barriers to work find, secure, and maintain employment. She will tell us who is eligible for this program, and what it covers. In addition, Alissa will present the opportunities and training that Back in Motion has developed for individuals interested in working in the warehousing sector through the “Warehousing Program”.
