Square Peg Society is inviting you to a Zoom meeting.

If you cannot attend, we will post a video after the meeting at: www.squarepegsociety.ca

Inclusive Employment Internships

We will be welcoming two speakers who will be presenting on internships for people with disabilities.

Jillian Bradley is the Co-Director of Employment Initiatives for Inclusion BC. She will be speaking to us about the MentorAbility program. In this program, job seekers with disabilities are paired with individual mentors in the industry that the client would like to work in.

Odette Dantzer is the Program Lead for Work-Able, a 12-month paid internship program that hires recent post-secondary graduates with disabilities. Interns gain public service experience while increasing their personal growth, skill development, knowledge, and confidence. Overall, since the Work-Able program began in 2015-2016, there has been a 59 percent retention rate in the BC Public Service.
